

Our name is our mission

The essence of law is to solve disputes between parties, to guide between right and wrong, between black and white. This is why we call ourselves INTER from the Latin preposition that means just that, "between". Inter will provide you with the correct advice, at the right time, in order for you to reach your goal. We offer leading edge knowledge within a number of areas but with one thing in common – profound competence.